

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 341

By Evans

A RESOLUTION to commend Mayor Omer Gene Brooksher for his thirty years of service to the people of Adams, Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those estimable public servants who have dedicated themselves to improving the quality of life for their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, Omer Gene Brooksher is one such estimable person who evinces the greatest integrity and probity in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, throughout his exemplary tenure as Mayor of the City of Adams, Omer Brooksher has distinguished himself as a public-spirited citizen of the highest order and as an exceptional asset to his community; and

WHEREAS, this year marks Mayor Brooksher's thirtieth year on the Adams City Commission; and

WHEREAS, the City of Adams has only had three mayors during its fifty year history; and the citizens of Adams are grateful for the many years of sensible leadership Mayor Brooksher has devoted to serving the city; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Brooksher's remarkable success as a public servant and civic leader is directly attributable to his reliance on the time-honored values of hard work and common sense and his uncommon ability to work well with people from all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Brooksher has overseen numerous grant programs, enabling the city to improve with a minimum cost to its citizens; and

WHEREAS, grant funding received by the city has financed projects such as the Bell School renovation, the John Strange Park construction, and the acquisition of new fire trucks; and

WHEREAS, he also encourages and supports the growth of existing and creation of new business within the city; and

WHEREAS, Omer Gene Brooksher is an extremely giving person who often reaches out with compassion to people whom life has treated unkindly, and he epitomizes the ideal of the consummate professional, dedicated public servant, and reliable friend and neighbor; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Omer Gene Brooksher is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the "Volunteer State," and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Mayor Omer Gene Brooksher for his thirty years of honorable and astute service to the good people of Adams, Tennessee and salute his unswerving commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
